HUNGER IN NORTHEAST NIGERIA

World Food Programme

WFP is the leading humanitarian agency fighting hunger worldwide, assisting some 80 million people in 80 countries each year.

WFP is bringing life-saving help to people in northeastern Nigeria fleeing from Boko Haram violence.

Rapid response teams coordinate delivery of food such as rice, beans and special food supplements to fight malnutrition in children. WFP's operation is scaling up to reach 1.8 million people with urgent food and nutrition support in 2017.
